.Good afternoon,

We have finished revising the ATSD for this permit. I have attached a version with the comments you emailed on April 17 and comments Jenny inserted after your phone conversation with her a couple of weeks ago – all as Word comments – and, most important, the edits to the document as tracked changes

Other editors made a few changes – fixing some typos and formatting issues – but I do not think any of those were substantive so I accepted them all and deleted any comments except mine and Jenny's just to make it all easier to follow.

Please let me know if there are any questions.
